2018-2019 UIL Dates for Eligibility

No Pass/No Play Guidelines set a 7 calendar day grace period following the end of each reporting period established by a district calendar. In accordance with these guidelines, the following chart identifies the dates on which a student may either lose or regain eligibility at the conclusion of the school day, 3:00/3:35 pm, and the conclusion of the 7 calendar day grace period. This grace period is provided so that a student has an opportunity to complete work missed due to an absence within the last week of the reporting period. It is not a period for doing extra work to raise an average to passing.

End of 3-Week or Nine-Week Reporting Period	May only regain eligibility at 3:00/3:35 PM	May lose or regain eligibility at 3:30/3:35 PM

- Students will not lose eligibility at the 3 week progress report period. At the time of a 3 weeks progress report, a student can only regain eligibility lost at the time of the previous report card.
- To regain eligibility, the student must be passing all courses, not just the course previously failed.
- A student does not lose eligibility based on the semester average, but rather on the first six weeks average. and on 9 week averages.
- All students are academically eligible during a school holiday of a full calendar week or more. (Thanksgiving, Christmas Break & Spring Break)
